Research Alliance Federal Grants and Contracts

October 1, 2010 – September 10, 2013

Note: This list is not meant to represent all Federal grants and contracts awarded to New York University during the period specified. Rather, it represents only those Federal grants and contracts awarded during this period for which the Research Alliance for New York City Schools at NYU was a direct beneficiary.

Grant/Contract Title	Agency	Program	Research Alliance role	Funds received
Research-Practice Partnership between the Research Alliance, CUNY, and the NYCDOE	Department of Education	IES	Prime awardee	$399,997
Predocutorial Interdisciplinary Research Training (IES-PIRT)	Department of Education	IES	Training center*	$210,000
Regional Education Laboratory (REL-NEI)	Department of Education	IES	Subawardee	$65,964
Innovation Ecosystem	Department of Education	i3	Subawardee	$600,569

*The IES-PIRT program is run through the Institute of Human Development and Social Change at NYU. The Research Alliance serves as one of several NYU-based IES-PIRT training centers. Through the auspices of this program, the Research Alliance has received the equivalent of $210,000 in doctoral-level research support.

Amounts listed for projects on which the Research Alliance served as a subawardee are equivalent to the amount awarded to the Research Alliance, and not to the amount awarded to the prime awardee.
