

Questions from Rep. Cathy McMorris-Rodgers (R-WA)

1. Why are charters schools so successful? Are there aspects of charter schools that can be incorporated and utilized in public schools?
2. We hear this word “accountability” used a great deal in the context of education. What does accountability mean as it relates to charter schools? How does it differ from the current accountability?
3. Why are charter schools a good option for special needs children?