DEMOCRATS' VISION FOR JOB TRAINING REFORM

More programs, more confusion, and more status quo.

mere pregnam		and more states 4
YouthBuild Trade Adjustment Assistance National Farmworker Jobs Program WIA Youth Activities Homeless Veteran Reintegation Pracet Useran Outreae Outr	Women in Apprenticeship and Nontraditional Occupations ANTO Apprenticeship Apprenticeship and Other	Vocational Assis Rehabilitation for Servi Disabled Veteran	Deparent	Refugee and Entrant Assistance: Targeted Assistance Grants
WIA National Emergency Grants Job Corps Ass. co Progras	Appres Shir and Other Training Gan Jobs Act	of Veterans Affairs Tempo	rary Assistance Families (TANF)	Community Services Block Grant
Employment C. amunity-	IA Dislocated Workers	Assistance: Vo Matching G	and Entrant oluntary Agency Frant Progra	and Entrant stage: Targeted ance iscretionary Protein
Wagner-Peyser Funde Carvice Lmplesen Reint	egration of Offenders	Career and Texh Education Projects with Industry	Rehabition of the State of the	Natival restitut reserved.
WIA Pilot and Employment Representative Program	ES Statistical Programs	In-Service Training of Rehabilitation Personnel	Department of Education	Supported Employment Services Program
Second Chance Act Prisoner Reentry Initiative DepartmeWCRI of J stice Initiative	A I C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C C	bally crolled condary echnical autions		Tech-Prep Education Career and Technical
SNAP Employment and Training Program Department of Agriculture	Department of the Interest	rior Pros. SS	Recre Prog	Education Indian Set- Aside ational grams
Brownfield Job Training Cooperative Agreements Environmental Protection Agency	Conservation Activities by Youth Service Organizations	Indian Vocationar Training United Tribes Technical College	You	tional Guard ath Challenge Program

House Democrats' job training proposal (H.R. 798) falls short of President Obama's request to "cut through the maze of confusing training programs." The bill creates six new programs in addition to the more than 50 programs that already exist.